WEDDING INFORMATION

April – November

Our bustling concert season, which runs mid-April through early November, allows for wedding ceremonies and daytime wedding receptions.

Wedding Ceremony

Wedding ceremonies are held in the backyard of the Trading Post, which can accommodate up to 200 guests. The space has a $1,250 site fee for two hours of use, and a chair rental fee of $4.25 per chair. Should you choose to hold your reception with us as well the ceremony, the site fee is lowered to $750.00. Our staff will set up the chairs to your specifications and will remove them following your ceremony. The site has electricity, but you are required to provide your own sound equipment if you have audio needs. Many of our couples find that acoustic music is a perfect addition to their ceremony.

Daytime Wedding Reception

While April through November are popular wedding months, they are also our busiest concert months. Therefore, during these times we are only able to hold daytime wedding receptions in the Rock Room. All receptions held in the Rock Room must conclude by 4:00 pm. The beautiful Rock Room also includes use of the attached patio overlooking a valley of red rocks. The space can accommodate up to 152 guests for a seated event, and has a $1,500 Food and Beverage Minimum. We will provide all tables, chairs, glassware, flatware, china, wait staff, bartenders, buffetware and standard linen as part of the 19% administrative fee. To coordinate bringing in your own decor, please contact a member of our catering staff for further assistance.

December - March

While Red Rocks is known for our summer concert season, it is a gorgeous location year round. If you are looking for a winter or early spring wedding, Red Rocks is ideal for a romantic evening.

Wedding Ceremony

Weather permitting, wedding ceremonies can be held in the backyard of the Trading Post, which can accommodate up to 200 guests. If the weather is not ideal for an outdoor ceremony, you have the option of using the Rock Room inside the Visitor Center. Our staff will set up the chairs to your specifications and will remove them following your ceremony. The Rock Room includes a microphone and house sound system at no additional charge. Many of our couples find that acoustic music is a perfect addition to their ceremony in this space as well.

Evening Wedding Reception

Following your ceremony, guests will typically enjoy cocktails and hors d'oeuvres in the Ship Rock Grille while you are taking photos. At the conclusion of cocktail hour, guests are invited into the Rock Room for dinner and dancing. To use both the Ship Rock Grille and Rock Room for an evening reception December through March, there is a $6,500 Food and Beverage Minimum. We will provide all tables, chairs, glassware, flatware, china, wait staff, bartenders, buffetware and standard linen as part of the 19% administrative fee. To coordinate bringing in your own decor, please contact a member of our catering staff for further assistance.
